Hello there

We believe our personalised books can give kids superpowers. Maybe not yeti strength or X-ray vision (we're working on those), but the things that really matter: courage, creativity and belonging.

In 2014 we embarked on a mission to inspire little readers with boundless self-belief. Our first book, Lost My Name, made millions of children smile across the world.

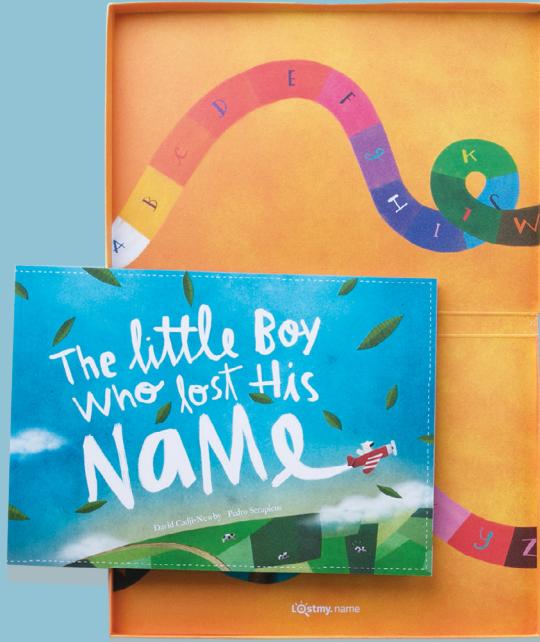

Ever since, we've been busy creating a number of just-as-mind-blowingly-personalised books and gifts. You'll find them all right here.

I am unique

The Little Boy/Girl Who Lost Their Name (Ages 0–8)

Lost My Name books do so much more than add a child's name. The letters of their name determine the characters they meet and the experiences they have, creating a unique quest of self-discovery. Our international best-seller.

The Incredible Intergalactic Journey Home

Take your child on a journey through space. Watch their face light up when they see their name in the stars and zoom over their real-life neighbourhood.

They rained on...
It was getting light...
They should be home in bed...
Excited, Isabella pointed down.
I know that place! she said.

Based on their actual address

Features a satellite image of the child's city and street (with the help of nifty satellite technology).

Show them their name in the stars

We turn the child's name into a beautiful constellation, making them the stars of the show.

I am determined

The Birthday Thief

I am wise

I belong
